Acknowledgements

The editors and staff wish to extend sincere thanks to Mr. Rod Hunter, representative of the Hunter Publishing Company; to Mr. Jon Wonsavage for his assistance in photographic work; to our typist, Sister Michael Daniel; and especially to Sister Michael Bernard, our advisor, for her endless hours of patience and effort which made this book possible.

We express our deepest gratitude to the Student Body for their active participation in obtaining patrons, and advertisers, without whose financial aid, this book would not be possible. We ask that you patronize those who so kindly assisted us.

Our sincere appreciation is also extended to our Most Reverend Bishop, to the members of the School Board, to our Administration and Faculty and to our Parents for their constant aid to us in all our problems.

The KEY staff of 1967 wishes to recall memories of the past year which will soon become Keys to the future. We hope that this book will be one of your most cherished possessions.

Joan Hrenko and James McRae, Co-Editors
